3 (1.) In the endorsement produced by the petitioner it is stated that the stamp was not produced within the time prescribed and that refund was refused in accordance with the Stamp Regn. of Govt notification. From this it was presumed that the petitioner did not produce the stamp within a year from the date of purchase ~~In a case has refund been sanctioned~~ (the time allowed by the notn. of 1881 referred to in cir no: 5084-92-10 / 29.8.90 printed at page 93 of the Mysore Stamp Rules and notifications).

(2.) The case was considered to be one falling under c

be stamped. If it is constru otherwise, the petition will have to be stamped with a

The records show that the petitioner pleads ignorance of law on the subject and that on account of plague scare he left his place & after return to the place he ~~filed~~ submitted a petition to the Dy Commr for refund. Para 1 — supra of the office notes says that on many occasions Govt have accepted the reasons for delay in presenting spoiled Stamp papers within the prescribed time, — such as — Sickness, Plague scare &c ~~&c~~ It is difficult to pick up particular instances on this point.

The periods within which relief can be granted are ~~for~~ specified in section 50: There does not appear to be any express provision in the Regulation as to whether these periods can be extended by Govt. In the present case over 2 years have elapsed since the instrument were executed—

I think that one year is the time within which refund should be applied for. Kindly ask the Dy Secy: to favor us with his opinion &c 16.8.1904

S.M. 16.8.04

The period of six months fixed by S. 50 of the Stamp Regn is one that has reference to the power of the Deputy Commissioner to make allowance for spoiled stamps. There is no such period fixed as regards Government. The fact that, in 1881, the Government of India authorized Local Governments to allow refunds if application was made within a year from the date of purchase or other specified event, shows that the Govt of India believe that the Stamp Reduction does not impose any limitation with reference to their own laws & act. To impose the distinctive functions of Imperial and Local government combine in one authority, the Govt of this Highness the Maharaja; & the latter can therefore, in my opinion, act without restriction of time; i.e. ~~from~~ make allowance for spoiled or useless stamps whenever an application for relief may be presented, on good cause being shown to the applicant.
